

Alex Longares

Alex Longares was born and raised in Miami Florida, He has been involved with horses since the age of seven. He started taking riding lessons through a school program. going on to show Hunters, Jumpers, Quarter Horses and Arabians/Half Arabians. In 1993, he formed his own corporation as owner and trainer.

He moved to Ocala Florida in 2006 and built a state of the art training facility on 60 Acres. His training program provides training for multiple disciplines along with a lesson program.

When he began judging open shows they opened doors for him to become a carded judge in multiple breeds. He also enjoys judging 4-H shows and helping the kids.

