

Darcee Jean Gundlock

Darcee Jean Gundlock is a Western Competition Coach, General Performance Judge and Western Judge, licensed through Equestrian Canada for over 30 years. She is an open show judge and has officiated at the Provincial Championship Level as well as specialty breed shows such as the Canadian Horse and the Alberta Pinto Horse shows. She has primarily competed in Breed and Open horse shows in the past and is currently training her own horses in Western Dressage, Working Equitation, Ranch and UNBRIDLED.

Darcee Jean runs “the UNBRIDLED class” clinic series, a weekend class that teaches both horses and riders how to advance to riding unbridled in multiple disciplines. She has also developed an UNBRIDLED horse show competition program that will start in the 2023 show year and is delighted to partner with OHSa to offer UNBRIDLED classes in this World Show
