IN HAND JUDGE JESSICA BACHMANN

JESSICA BACHMANN

*OASA Level 3 Judge
Specialty Disciplines in Western, Hunt Seat, and Ranch*

Jessie is a lifelong Vermonter who grew up in the Vermont State 4-H Horse Program. She has extensive experience training, showing, and judging at both 4-H and open horse shows. She has a special interest in judging halter classes across all breeds, ranch horse classes, and 4-H Horse Judging contests.

She is the current coach of the Vermont State 4-H Horse Judging Team, where she mentors and prepares the team to attend the Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup each fall. She also volunteers her time organizing and teaching horse judging seminars and trainings for 4-H youth.

Jessie holds a B.S. in Animal Science from the University of Vermont and a DVM from Cornell University. She lives in Ira, Vermont, with her husband, dogs, cats, and horses. In her free time, she enjoys riding, hiking, traveling, and training and trialing her dogs in multiple dog sports.

Located in Vermont, with travel throughout New England, New York, and beyond.

WESTERN JUDGE MICHELLE OEHLER

Michelle Oehler

OHSA Level 3 Judge with Specialty Designations in Western and Ranch Horse.

Michelle is a professional horse trainer and riding instructor with over 28 years experience. She has been a judge for open and sanctioned horse shows for 10 years. She's competed in hunter/jumpers, eventing, Arabians and stock horses competing at upper levels in all.

Her training facility in Menifee, CA has Michelle breeding, training, and showing world caliber AQHA and APHA horses in everything from conformation to rail events to performance. Over the years she has had the pleasure of training a wide variety of breeds in several disciplines, including miniature horses, gaited horses and drafts.

She loves sharing knowledge and encouraging people to become the best horsemen they can be. In addition to her training facility she's also a clinician as well as a 4-H volunteer. She's an advocate to promote interest and understanding of varied disciplines and to ignite a passion for showing horses.

Alex Longares

Alex Longares was born and raised in Miami Florida. He has been involved with horses since the age of seven. He started taking riding lessons through a school program, going on to show Hunters, Jumpers, Quarter Horses and Arabians/Half Arabians. In 1993, he formed his own corporation as owner and trainer.

He moved to Ocala Florida in 2006 and built a state of the art training facility on 60 Acres. His training program provides training for multiple disciplines along with a lesson program.

When he began judging open shows they opened doors for him to become a carded judge in multiple breeds. He also enjoys judging 4-H shows and helping the kids.

Tony Schurmann

For the past twenty-five years, Tony Schurmann has been actively involved and dedicated to the equine industry.

As a youth, Tony worked on his family farm in Clarksville, Tennessee. He was taught to care for over 60 head of horses at the facility for boarding, training, or breeding. As his passion for competition and horses continued to grow, he started to participate in the AQHA circuit. His hard work and dedication was evident. As an emergent horseman, Tony was provided the opportunity to compete on the WTDHA Youth Congress Team for several years.

At 18, Tony accepted a position at Red Hot Quarter Horses in Alabama. This facility was known for their World and Congress Champion Stallion, Red Hot Impulse and providing an in-depth training program and educational experience for their interns and apprentices. Once Tony completed his time with Red Hot Quarter Horses, he took his knowledge and experience back to Tennessee, where he started his own training and lesson program.

During this time Tony was also commissioned to scribe, judge, and advise the boards of many clubs in and around Tennessee. Always seen as fair, honest, and knowledgeable, Tony was hired many times through the years to judge and provide clinics to help further many exhibitors' knowledge and experience in the show ring and home.

Later, Tony decided he needed to continue growing as a horseman for his clients and their horses; therefore, applied for the assistant trainer position at Tommy Sheets Show Horses. Once hired, Tony learned from the World and Congress Champion trainer Tommy Sheets. Tony studied, observed, and established a new program, opening his program to an All-Around format with a great welcome from the industry and clients.

Currently, Tony partnered with C4 Ranch Equestrian Facility in Coffee Springs, Alabama. Tony has taken his experience to establish a training program he can teach and share with horsemen and horsewomen as they strive to further develop their skills. To ensure the future of his program, Tony has two working students, volunteers with the Geneva County 4-H Club, conducts lessons, provides horse training opportunities to the community, and teaches clinics.

Through the years he learned the values and virtues of being a professional and practiced at length to have an honest and helpful program. Basing his program on a "resistance free" style, Tony enabled many horses deemed unworthy or low caliber otherwise. His goal was to help horses and their owners to reach maximum potential regardless of wealth, title, or registration. Through this, he gained a strong, supportive barn family and lifelong friends.

Tony knows to be successful, you must never stop learning and continues to seek clinics, webinars, certifications, seminars, educational and other professional events to cultivate his skills and understanding as a professional and horseman.

*The day you stop trying to learn, is the day you give up being the best you can be!*

FINE HORSE & GAITED JUDGE KAREN LODICO

Karen LoDico
OHSa Level 2
Carded Judge

Karen LoDico is the owner and manager of PK Stables in Henderson KY, offering boarding, lessons and training. She specializes in adults who want to ride but are nervous or fearful. Her training includes both the psychological aspect of riding as well as the biomechanics of how our bodies effect the horses. This helps people have the tools they need to succeed and gain confidence. Her focus is on enjoying your horse no matter if your goals are show success or just trail riding.

In addition to having worked with a Grand Prix level trainer in Florida, Karen has had the extraordinary opportunity to ride and train all over the world including: lessons on the Lipizzaners at their breeding farm in Lipica, Solvenia, riding with European instructors in Italy, Ireland, Spain and Australia. She has also worked with several NARHA (North American Riding for the Handicapped Association) accredited facilities. Both as a volunteer and teacher.

Karen has pulled together knowledge gained from those experiences to show and teach in various disciplines from dressage, eventing, hunter under saddle, Western dressage, obstacles, speed and action events and ranch riding. She has a special fondness for open and fun shows, finding those are the ones enjoyed the most by her students. As the secretary of HARC (Henderson Area Riding Club) she has had the opportunity to host shows for the local community including planning, executing and judging these shows.

Karen also manages PK Stables Online Horse Show on Facebook. All our judges currently are OHSa certified and some hold additional certifications. Results are posted on my website allowing for placings to count toward points and awards for many organizations.

Nicole Gudorf

OHSA Level 2 Carded Judge
with Specialty Designations
in Western and Ranch Horse

Nicole Gudorf grew up with horses and horse shows, starting with 4-H in Indiana. She was involved in everything horse related that 4-H had to offer including the horse project, hippology, and horse judging over 10 years. Her youth accomplishments included individual wins in horse judging, multiple outstanding horsemanship awards, in addition to multiple wins and championships in various show classes.

While showing and training her own horses she has put a lot of effort into her judging career and family. In addition to her Level 2 OHSA card with Specialty Designations in Ranch and Western, she has been approved by Indiana 4-H since 2018, ARHA, and FQHR.

Nicole has judged many local, 4-H, and Open Shows and spent the past 3 years scribing intensely for different ARHA charters. She has a great passion for the horse industry, and its youth. Nicole hopes to help others reach their goals and achieve new levels. She hopes to be that role model for our youth, and to help the horse industry expand and grow for years to come as her role models helped her achieve every goal she set for herself.

Nicole feels that everyone will always have something to learn. Whether that be inside or outside of the arena. Every opportunity/experience has something that can be taken away from it to help yourself and others. The reason she fell in love with the horse show organization is that its family-oriented, friendly, supports honesty, personal growth, a place where horses are respected, promotes a positive atmosphere and sportsmanship.

DRESSAGE JUDGE SHELBY LAWRENCE

SHELBY LAWRENCE

OHSA LEVEL 2
CARDED JUDGE

Specialty Disciplines in Dressage and Hunt Seat

Shelby Lawrence is a trainer, instructor, and horse show judge dedicated to developing confident, well-rounded horses and riders through dressage-based horsemanship. Known for her positive, approachable teaching style, she works with riders of all disciplines and experience levels, and especially enjoys giving back to youth after growing up in 4-H.

Shelby is a USDF Bronze and Silver Medalist and a USDF "L" Judge Education Graduate. She holds open-show judging cards with NE4H, OHSA, and NCSU, with specialties in dressage, hunt seat, gaited horses, and western disciplines. She is also advancing her education through the USAWE "L" Judge Program for working equitation. Her recent competitive highlights include multiple championships at the National Dressage Pony Cup, an Open FEI Award at GMHA Dressage, a Top 5 finish at the Equine Affaire Versatile Horse & Rider Competition, and breed-specific awards through USAWE and USDF.

With experience as a student, trainer, competitor, and judge, Shelby brings a well-rounded, practical perspective to her teaching. Her upbeat, relatable approach makes her clinics both educational and enjoyable for riders at every level.

JUDGE DEBRA DUNN

Debra Dunn

OHSA Carded Level 3 Judge

Specialty Disciplines in In Hand, Western, Hunt Seat, Saddle Seat, Gaited, Dressage, Driving, and Ranch

Debra is a life long horsewoman. Showing since a young child she has won numerous national championships, trained and coached youth including state champion 4-H horse judging teams, show manager and secretary for numerous shows including NRCHA, and worked with rescue off the track Standardbreds.

Her real love came into being when she founded the Open Horse Show Association, the only international organization for individuals showing at local open horse shows. She has judged for organizations including the POAC and NRCHA, with a wide breadth of knowledge across all breeds and disciplines. She now judges open and 4-H shows after giving up her breed and association cards to focus on the open show arena.

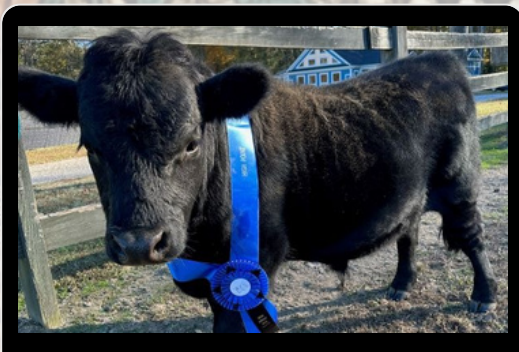

Family is important and she spends any free time with her kids and grandchildren. Recently she had the honor of judging the area qualifying 4-H show with her son and fellow OHSA judge, Chase Button.
